

New Humor Writing Workshop

This class is designed to instruct students interested in all forms and phases of humor writing from development to publication through lecture and exercises with emphasis on in-class writing and feedback. Sample sessions include brainstorming techniques, basic story structure, and humor markets. Chris Miksanek has been publishing humor for almost twenty years and has studied humor writing at Chicago's Players Workshop of Second City and the UCLA Writer's Program. He has written for radio, TV, newspapers, trade magazines, and was a contributor to a popular computer trivia game.
